Certified ScrumMaster (CSM)®

Scrum is the best known and most frequently used Agile approach. Simple rules let you see what's really happening, get fast feedback and adapt your approach. Thanks to that Scrum allows for effective development of complex product and getting most of your product with every short increment. Despite its origin in IT, Scrum is widely used in other areas, including Sales, Marketing and even Education.

Scrum changes the way teams work and product are being developed. Despite its simplicity it is very difficult to implement and master. It's hard to understand new approach and gain new perspective from books and articles, therefore we regularly organize courses allowing for better understanding of Scrum roles and principles.

Certified ScrumMaster is Two-day, advanced training that prepares participants for the role of Agile Coach and team's mentor. Through lecture, discussions and interactive exercises they learn what Agile Culture is and how to efficiently apply Scrum Principles and Agile Practices to lead and empower Agile team. Numerous examples from organizations of different size explain how to address potential challenges. Experienced Certified Scrum Trainer helps in gaining practice in explaining Scrum to organization, presenting different perspective and guiding team through change that would continuously improve product and their way of working.

Who should attend?
